

Newsletter

With this Christmas number I wish to send Seasonal greetings to all the staff of the Station, and the Overseas stations, and their families and to wish them every success and happiness in the New Year. Much good work has been done during the year and some important results have been, or are being, achieved. I hope the forthcoming year will, if possible, be even more productive.

J. A. Ratchiffe.

Director

15th December 1962

